

His handwriting has improved so much. The difference in his first attempt at writing his name to now...is amazing!

His handwriting has greatly improved.

Seeing how far she has come with her writing.

How he is trying to sound words out by himself.

Maths. Lovely to see him improving daily.

I can see so much progress in her writing.

His sentence book. His sentences have come on amazingly.

Pictures in the workbooks and comments of what the children have said. It was nice to see the answers to questions.

EYFS

What piece of work impressed you the most?

Parent comments from our May book look.

She has improved so much from Autumn to Summer. Lovely work and effort.

The change in writing and the finger spaces.

The fireworks activity where he matched the sounds to the picture.

Maths. The Prickly doubles. It was a fun activity.

The creativity and sentence structure in the literacy exercises.

Maths – His ability to explore the composition on numbers.