

His maths book. He seems to be getting on really well.

All of it! He has worked so hard in all lessons. I am so proud.

My child's drawings of her elephant, giraffe and zebra. I can see her pencil control has improved.

The writing. It is so neat and tidy.

I am impressed with my daughter's writing. It has come along so well.

I loved his artwork and his handwriting is a lot better now,

What piece of work impressed you the most?

Parent comments from our May book look.

The history work because of the work on toys.

The work on comparing features of homes.

I liked the science book. Great drawings and handwriting. Well done.

The drawings and writing about favourite toys. It was nicely presented.

The English and Maths books. I can see that he is improved his handwriting.

The English work and the sentences.

His English and Maths. I enjoyed seeing his effort.
